THE TRUSTEES.

MIXTURA PARA TERCIANAS

DE JAYNE,
A CERTAIN AND EFFECTUAL REMEDY
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Remittent Fevers, &c.

This class of diseases, so common in all part of the world, and specially prevalent in malerious districts and vicinage of water courses, are almost invariably accompanied by more or less derangement of the liver, and frequently by a defective action of the digestive organs.

The mere breaking of the Chill is but a step towards completing a radical cure. The various organs of the body, especially the stomach and liver, must be brought to a healthy and vigorous condition before a permanent cure can be established, and this fact has been specially kept in view by Dr. Jayne in his treatment of these complaints. The use of Jayne's Ague Mixture in conjunction with the Sanative Pills, as prescribed in the directions which accompany each bottle, will not only

Break up the Chills,

But restore the system more particularly the liver and stomach, to a sound condition, and so prevent a relapse of Fever and Ague, by thoroughly

Eradicating the Disease,

And the best evidence of this is the invariable success which has always followed the administration of these remedies, as attested by the certificates published annually in Dr. Jayne's Almanac, and the wide-spread popularity of the Ague Mixture in those districts of the United States, where these diseases, for which it is adapted, most prevail.

All Dr. D. Jayne's Family Medicines are prepared only at 242 Chestnut-street, Philadelphia, and are sold by Druggists everywhere.

It being an admitted fact, that "Money makes money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Savings Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public, so that, by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, may be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband their small means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA receives Deposits of from Five Patacones per Annum up to any amount in Weekly, Monthly, or Yearly Instalments.

Radway's Pills.

In Radway's Pills the true principle of purgation is secured—not alone to the office of dismissing the fæces and excrements from the bowels, but these rumors that are checked or stopped in their passage through the Skin, Kidneys, Lungs, and all excreting and secreting functions; for if these excrementatious secretions belonging to the skin, liver, lungs, kidneys, are interrupted in their escape, they become products of decay and decomposition, and must be purged from the living body through their proper channels; hence the purgative qualities of Radway's Pills extend to the secretions of the Skin, Kidneys, Diver, &c.; whereas not one of the advertised Pills claim to act beyond the bowels.

MUNICIPAL REFORM BILL.

Governor Castro has undertaken to galvanize the municipal corpse, and his project of Reform submitted to the Provincial Legislature is the most wretched and ineffective measure that could be devised. Now, for the first time, Buenos Ayres hoped to possess a charter, with a corporate body able to vote its own expenditure, create its own revenues, levy its own taxes, enforce its own laws. The Municipality should be more powerful than either the Legislature or the Executive, for its laws ought not require the Governor's signature, nor its annual budget be subject to the approval of the Chambers.

His Excellency Mr. Castro, however, views the matter in quite another light, and, while proposing to emancipate the municipality, binds it down as tight as ever. The Municipality is to have neither the power to levy a new tax, nor the right to borrow money, nor in fact the simplest financial attributes that are necessary for the management of this great, wealthy and populous city.

The preamble and bill occupy 7 columns of the Tribuna, the bill consisting of 82 articles, but as the Spanish language is very diffuse we can condense the whole project into a quarter of the same space in English, viz.

Municipal Constitution.

The Municipality to consist of 30 members, i.e. 18 to form the Municipal Council, and 12 the Executive Committee; with as many substitutes in case of illness &c. The Corporation to be convoked within 8 days, a President appointed, and a day fixed for naming the Executive Committee. Those not elected on the Committee shall form the Council, the President of the latter taking precedence of the Chairman of the Executive Committee. The Municipality to enter on office on January 1st. till Dec. 31st. of each year. The members to be elected for two years, one-half retiring each year, the first year by lot. The Chairman of the Executive Committe to receive a suitable salary which the Board shall put down in the Budget.

Election of Members.

The whole city to form one electoral district. The electors to be 1st. all natives of full age; 2nd. all foreign residents with these qualifications; they must be a year resident in the city, over 22 years old, know how to read and write, and never have committed fraudulent bankruptcy or been accused of any grave crime. Foreign voters can only be enrolled in the month of October, and the register of their names shall be published on or before Nov. 8th, with one week for correction. Natives or foreigners are eligible to the Municipality, possessing the above qualifications, but no employee of the National or Provincial Government can be elected, nor anyone having contracts (or being bail for contractors) with the municipality. The elections shall take place every year on the last Sunday in November. If any member die or resign a successor is to be chosen by lot from the substitutes.

Attributes and Faculties.

The Municipality shall administer the city revenues, direct and carry out the public works, take charge of the Municipal establishments [not including those of the Sociedad de Beneficencia], look after the public health, foster public morals and education, regulate the streets and public improvements, and appoint parochial committees to inspect houses. It shall vote its own Budget, and fix its own revennes each year. Whenever 1 Municipal voters make a complaint, or call for an improvement a special committee shall be sent to investigate the matter; or if it is merely a parochial affair the petition of 5 neighbors shall be enough.

Public Security.

The Municipality shall look after the prisons, weights and measures, fires, inundations, falling houses, construction of theatres &c., and take suitable measures. The police of the City shall henceforward have nothing to do with the Municipality, but be under the direction of Government.

Health.

The Municipality shall have care of the cleanliness, lighting, and disinfecting of the city, the Vaccination office, the hospitals, the regulation of lodging houses, factoriss &c., the removal of establishments considered unhealthy, the superintendence of markets, mataderos, prisons &c., the prohibition unwholesome food, the managment of the cemeteries, and such general precautions as may prevent the spread of an epidemic.

Education.

There shall be at least one public school in each parish, besides a Polytechnic institute, and the Municipality shall apprentice poor orphans to useful trades. It shall also prevent begging, and have a poor asylum. It shall forbid immoral plays or dances, and protect public decency and respect for religion.

Public Works.

The Municipal Council shall decide on such city improvements as public health or convenience suggests; order new parks, plazas, and promenades (expropriating whatever sites are necessary) widen the streets, repair roads and bridges, and preserve public buildings, markets, paving, etc.

Revenues.

The Council shall direct everything pertaining to city revenues and their outlay, voting its own Budget and taxes; but it cannot contract a loan here or abroad without having first procured the sanction of the Legislature. The municipal revenues shall include the 'octroi' on cattle, pigs and sheep, the street lighting, municipal licenses, fees on weights and measures, also on sand etc.; a police tax; 10 per cent. of the Contribucion Directa; the fees on markets, cemeteries, hospitals, fines, raffles, numbers of houses, etc. No fine to exceed $5000 m|c. The revenues shall also include a tax of $500 per cuadra annually from each tramway, a fee from each new house for delineation, a rate for basura and street cleaning, besides the receipts of the Escribanos of Government. A special committee each year shall make up the Budget, and a majority of the Municipal Board shall decide as to its acceptance. In case of any new tax, or the increase of an old one, a message shall be sent to the Chambers, which shall have the power either to modify or abolish it, if deemed excessive. Neither can any new tax be made unless for some new service. No municipal property can be sold unless by public auction, after 30 days' notice in the papers. The municipal revenues may also be put up to auction in this way, but for no longer than a year.

The Executive Committee.

The Committee shall administer all public interests and see that the municipal laws are carried out; so many member shall be named to take charge of each branch. All city employees shall be immediately subject to the Committee, as well as the collection of the taxes. All public works shall be done by contract, proposals having been called for 30 days previous in the papers; works of science or art are excepted. Municipal services and establishments must be managed either by paid employees or parochial committees. Every quarter a balance sheet shall be published. Whenever domiciliary visits are judged requisite the inspectors must have an order signed by the President of the Board, and secretary. For the enforcement of its regulations the Municipality may call on the police, alcaides, and parochial committees, but no ordinance of the Executive Committee shall have force unless voted by a majority of the whole Board. The Executive Committee shall represent the Municipality in the Law courts.

President and Vice.

The Council and the Committee shall each elect a President and Vice every year, to preside at their debates and have the casting vote, to sign the resolutions, act as chairman, look after the various employees, dismiss or correct them &c. The President of the Executive Committee must carry out the municipal decrees, sit in his office everyday from 11 to 4, besides attending the days of meeting, and decide in all matters of fine or arrest, but an appeal may be made within 3 days from his decision to that of the Committee. No arrest or detention can exceed 15 days. The President of the Committee shall inspect all public offices and works, and adopt any urgent measures pro tem.

General Regulations.

Questions of jurisdiction between the Municipality and any other power shall be referred to the Federal Courts,

In purely municipal matters there shall be no appeal from the Municipality, but if anyone feels himself injured he may sue the Board before the ordinary tribunals. No municipal councillor can be a party in contracts, under pain of expulsion and annulling the contract: the Juez de Crimen shall decide. The members are individually responsible for their acts. Each year a report shall be published of all the proceedings. Within 20 days the Government shall call the public to elect a new Municipal Board, but those at present in office shall hold till Dece. 31st.

THE RAILWAY TO BOLIVIA.

MR. HOPKINS'S SCHEME.

II.

RIVERS OF THE CHACO.

The first of these which attracts attention in connection with this memorial is, of course, the River Pilcomayo. The records of the various attempts to navigate it are far more complete than those of so many land expeditions already touched upon.

P. Patiño was the first, and as yet the most successful. He tried it in 1721; but though he found more water than the others, the fallen trees and hostile Indians turned him back. P. Castañares tried it in 1741, but found not water enough to float a boat.a One named Cazales followed him, and finally Azara himself attempted it in 1785, with like result. No one of them went onward for want of water, and "it is probable," says the simple Angelis, "that this was the greatest obstacle they met with in all its navigation."b Even had this so called river sufficient water, it is nothing more than a ditch where it runs through the lower half of the alluvium of the Chacho, is of extreme narrowness and tortuousness, and with its margins covered by dense woods, so that it is impossible to navigate it either by sail or steam; for in the first place, no steady wind reaches its surface, or will serve for one league of navigation, and steamers would sink each other in the sudden turns, even at mid-day.

Your memorialist entered this river in a small steamer, some 15 or 20 leagues, in 1869, and was fully convinced at that time of the truth of these remarks. Indeed, after having run ten leagues, he was still in sight of the Cathedral towers of Asuncion. In the upper half of its course in the Chaco below the Puerto Magariños, it spreads abroad into numerous lagunas and thus loses much of its waters by absorption and evaporation.

These attempts of the last century not having been conclusive in the minds of all, Mr. Thompson, an American made a last effort, under the auspices of the Minister Magariños, though it was the first expedition which had ever started from Bolivia.

Thompson commenced his trip some distance below the falls of Caiza, where the Pilcomayo projects itself into the alluvium of the Chaco; but he could not proceed 10 leagues when he had to desist, like his predecessors, for want of water.

It is at this point, since called Puerto Magariños on the maps,d that your memorialist proposes to make the upper terminus of the projected railroad, should the surveyors approve of it, or at farthest, just above the falls of Caiza. But they only can decide practical questions of this kind: whether it would be better to extend the road a few miles farther, or to build a steam-boat lock around the falls.

Above this point to the falls, and thence far into the heart of inhabited Bolivia, Dalence informs us that the Pilcomayo is navigable at all seasons of the year, for a draft of three feet.e It is also far straighter in its course, and more constant in the amount of its waters than after it reaches the plains of the Chaco, named by the Bolivians the plains of Manso.f

On its course between these points it is joined by the Pilaya, which flows from the vale of Tarija, called by the 'conquistadores' the 'Vale of Paradise.' This river is navigable at all times, and is the natural outlet to the productions of this charming valley, which by all accounts is the most beautiful, healthy, and productive on the surface of the earth. g

Although the city of Tarija is situated upon the uppermost streams of the Bermejo, they are by no means navigable above the Esquina Grande, some 162 miles in a straight line from Tarija, whilst the latter is distant from the navigable Pilaya only 35 miles; moreover the distance to be made to the navigable waters of the Paraguay, by the Pilcomayo and the proposed railway, would be about two-thirds less than that necessary by the Bermejo.

From the valley of the river Parajuti to the Pilcomayo the distance is only 30 miles, which some day or other will be easily measured by a canal; because this stream has no outlet, but loses its waters in lagunas, like the Dulce, and the Rios Segundo, Cuarto, y Quinto with us, and is therefore probably of a greater altitude than the Pilcomayo.

From the mouth of the Pilcomayo north to Bahia Negra, on the River Paraguay, there is no stream at all worthy of the name; the Pilcomayo, flowing to the eastward, empties into the River Paraguay. The Rio Verde, found upon all the maps, has no existence whatever. This your memorialist proved to his entire satisfaction in the month of March, 1870, when he made his last voyage of discovery to the Alto Paraguay, in his small steamer Gamo, for the express purpose of finding this mythical river; because he was not satisfied with his previous explorations, made in canoes in the years 1849-50. During this last trip he kept behind all the islands, and entered every laguna of the Chaco shore the whole way, held constant intercourse with the Indians, as also with the oldest Paraguayans of Concepcion and Divino Salvador, and could learn or see nothing of any such stream. As for the Otuquis, or Rio Negro, it is undoubtedly navigable for a short distance, but cannot be considered in this memorial, because it is hundreds of leagues from the centre of population in Bolivia, as well as an equal distance from the shortest course for us to reach that centre. To recommend it in this connection would be simply advising a repetition of the faults of Ayolas and Trala.

Under this head there remains to be considered the river Bermejo. This river, though supposed to contain more water than any other in the Chaco, possesses the same characteristics as the Salado and the Pilcomayo. It is narrow and excessively tortuous, and to navigate it requires a distance to be run at least three times longer than were it on a straight line. The low and marshy shores for a great portion of its course, render the procuring of fuel of great difficulty. Nor is it navigable to any centre of population. The distance to be run from the mouth of the Ceuta to the river Paraguay is 407½ leagues, a according to Cornejo, from whom Soria, P. Murillo and others, do not greatly differ.

But notwithstanding the vital necessity to the north-west provinces of the Republic of the navigation of this river, which renders it 'per se' worthy of the constant endeavours latterly made to open it, as also of the fostering aid of the National Government, it can never serve as an important outlet for the commerce of Bolivia; because between it and the great centre of production in Bolivia, intervene 500 miles of almost impassable mountains and valleys, sparsely populated, and in every sense inhospitable to mankind. A railroad built through such a region would be twice as long, and would cost 12 times as much as by the route your memorialist proposes, and for almost the whole distance would be without fuel, to say nothing of the distance to be run by land from Jujui, or by the Bermejo.

We quote Kerst as follows:—"What we have said of the river Bermejo is sufficient to confirm us in our opinion that this river can never be made the principal mercantile road to Bolivia, however great may be its importance to the Northern Argentine provinces; to the colonization of the southern part of the Gran Chaco; and to a portion of the Bolivian province of Tarija. The eastern Bolivian provinces are at too great a distance, nor can it be of any advantage to the central points of Sucre, Potosi, and Cochabamba, because the difficulties of communication between its shores and those cities are almost insurmountable. Merchandize arriving by the Bermejo at the Puntas de San Francisco (junction of Rio Grande de Jujui and the Bermejo) must be carried on mules, a distance of 45 leagues to Tarija, thence in the same way to Sucre, some 75 leagues farther, crossing mountains whose passage is extremely difficult.

This is the opinion also of the celebrated traveller Wedell, in his work, 'Voyage dans le sud de Bolivia,' and Leon Favre, although so enthusiastic upon the Bermejo, likewise acknowledged in his book, that the productions of Sta. Cruz, Mojos, and Chiquitas, must find another outlet, and to that end he indicates the river Otuquis!!

Wedell says—"The advantages of the navigation of the river Bermejo for the northern provinces of Bolivia will certainly not be considerable, whilst a road by land, crossing the Chaco north of the Pilcomayo, in a direction which would not be exposed to the inundations of that river, or to those of the Paraguay, would present incalculable advantages."

ARGENTINE RURAL SOCIETY.

FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Although the Plague paralyzed our efforts for six months, we can still point to some useful labors during the past year. But first of all we must allude to the sad loss we have sustained in the demise of Mr. José Martinez de Hoz, president of the Society from its foundation, who died in Cordoba, whither he had gone for his health. We also lost our Treasurer, Don Ramon Vitou, who perished during the epidemic, while rendering assistance to the sick.

Proceedings.

We have given much attention to the encouragement of immigration, to the question about the wool-auction at Pilar, to the difficulties about taking cattle from the Corrales, to the best method of selling cattle for Invernados, to the interpretation of the Rural Code as regards stray cattle, to the proper way of preventing robberies by "friendly Indians;" all of which are fully dealt with in the Society's Annuals. At the earliest opportunity we shall take up M. Vignon's pneumatic wells. We have abstained from treating of the project for improving the breed of horses, since it is a kind of commercial speculation, and the subject had already received our attention as will be seen by our correspondence with the Minister of Agriculture in Prussia, relative to the introduction of the famous Trakehner breed into this country.

Seeds.

We have done our best to procure exchanges of seeds from other countries, sending our own samples to various parts, and expect to do so on a large scale when the Cordoba Exhibition is over, as there is a splendid collection from all the Provinces. We have received varied samples from England, Australia, and North America.

Catalogues.

Besides seeds we have procured several volumes of catalogues of building materials, farm implements and machinery &c. from all the best makers in France and England, with prices expressed.

Model Farm.

We purchased Santa Catalina for the sum $1,450,000 m|c. and having taken an inventory, gave the place in charge to Mr. Patrick Bookey, at the same time appointing a committee to draw up plans. We have adopted the plans and programme of Ernest Oldendorff, which are being drawn up, so as to hasten the fulfilment of an institute of so much importance.

Branch Societies.

Although most of our landed proprietors take little interest in the society our preaching has begun to bear fruit. At Frayle Muerto, Azul and Montevideo rural societies on our model have been established, and in the Cuyo Provinces another is being got up. The Azul society devotes its attention to the rescue of captives from the Indians, the improved relations with the aborigines, distribution of rations and establishment of Indian towns.

Annals

Our annals are much praised by the daily press, yet our subscribers are so few that without Government subsidy it would not pay to print them. For 100$ a year we give our readers much valuable information on rural and other matters.

Library.

We have received important donations of books, especially that of our Honorary Member, Marques de Perales.

Cordova Exhibition.

Our labors for the coming Exhibition are already too well known; the occasion is one of transcendental importance for the agricultural interests of the Republic. It will be the first thing of the kind in these countries.

Saladeros.

As resolved at the last meeting, we sent a note to the Government requesting the immediate settlement of this question. Almost the same day Governor Castro called on the Legislature to decide at once on the subject.

Regulations.

During the last five years we have noted some of our by-laws which call for modification; this is before a committee.

Indians.

We have been consulted by the Rural Society of Azul in reference to several matters respecting Indians, in which we have given them the best advice we could.

Cash.

The balance-sheet for June 30th shows a sum on hand of $19,137 m|c.

Elections.

Messrs. Ricardo Newton, José Jurado, Juan J Peña, Vicente Amadeo, J. B. Bonnement, Martin Iraola, and Miguel Insiarte were elected to make up the Board of Directors for 1872.

Railway to Azul.

A committee was appointed to wait on Government and request the carrying out of this line.

E. OLIVERA,
Chairman.
VICTORY SUAREZ,
Secretary.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We publish to-day a 'precis' of the new municipal law proposed by the Provincial Executive to the Chambers. The project has a few good points, but looking at it as a whole it may be considered merely an attempt to galvanize a dead body. Should it become law the Corporation may, for a time, make a few spasmodic attempts at better civic administration, but a much broader measure of reform is necessary to place the Municipal body on a proper independent footing.

The thermometer fell to 42 Fahrt. during the night of Thursday, and yesterday was bitterly cold and inclement. There was a heavy shower of rain on Thursday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock, but it soon cleared off. Snow fell in town yesterday about 3 o'clock.

Amongst the eccentricities found last year in the returns sent in to the Income Tax Commissionners in England is the following, which the assessed party placed under the head of 'precarious income.' 'For the last three years my income has been somewhat under £150; in future it will be more precarious, as the man is dead of whom I borrowed the money.'

It has been remarked that the members of the Argentine Cabinet are not quite as much 'en rapport' as a happy family of Ministers should be. While Dr. Dominguez burns the midnight oil in endeavouring to make both ends meet, Dr. Velez Sarsfield seems to take especial delight in pulling contra. Dr. D. wants to sell 17,000 Central Argentine shares to stop a gap in the estimates, meanwhile Dr. V. is busy contriving how they are to be sold at the lowest possible figure, and consequently proposes to do away with the guarantee to the line; a nice financial kettle of fish may be the result. A careful study of the recent excentricities of the Minister of the Interior has left a painful doubt on our minds as to his being a bona fide Irishman. There is a very distinguished family of the same name in the Isle of Man: Dr. Velez may probably be of this branch.

The following is a master-piece in the epitaph way; it was written by a disconsolate widower after a fortnight's uninterrupted reflection on the irreparable loss he had sustained by his wife's death; he had it carved on her tombstone—

Thou hast gone before me
To thy last and long sleep;
Tears cannot restore thee,
Therefore I weep.

We understand that the station-master at the Chacarita states he can no longer remain at his post owing to the loose way in which the burial administration is carried on. Coffins are left in rows for hours at the station waiting till 'boletos' are procured, meanwhile the effluvia comes 'betwixt the wind' and the station-master's ability to stand foul smells. Who is to blame for all this? Not the Municipality who only owe the Western railway the 'fleabite' of three millions for carrying corpses to the Chacarita.

Judge Peters, a Philadelphian and a punster, having observed to another Judge on the bench that one of the witnesses had a vegetable head, "How so?" was the inquiry. He has carroty hair, reddish cheeks, a turnip nose, and a sage look.

The Indians are playing Old Harry in San Luis. In their last raid they carried off half-a-dozen mule trains, and hundreds of cattle. Some Government troops were sent in pursuit of the savages, but on coming up with them the Indians faced about and drove them back, carrying away the booty.

We understand that the gentleman who lately broke his leg in the hole in the mole is about to take an action against the Port authorities, damages to be laid at 25,000 patacones. The plaintiff has our best wishes for his success in the suit; in any case he deserves a public testimonial as being the first to make an effort to render the authorities responsible for such a dangerous and long standing nuisance as the far famed Hole in the Mole.

The numerous friends of Post Captain H. Fawkes, R. N. lately Commander of H. M. gunboat Cracker on this station, will be glad to learn something of the gallant officer. He is about to strike his flag, in a matrimonial sense, and will shortly be married to an Irish lady. But for the sudden death of Captain Fawkes' father the ceremony would have taken place ere this.

Our morning colleagues report a singular state of the atmosphere to have prevailed on Santa Rosas' day, Wednesday last. The air was so clear that from the roof of any high house in town Martin Garcia, Colonia, and some say the city of Montevideo were plainly visible with the naked eye. We are unable to vouch for the accuracy of this report, as the day was so bitterly cold, we felt no inclination whatever for making atmospheric observations.

The works on the new French theatre and café in Calle Corrientes have been discontinued for some time. We believe this speculation was knocked on the head by the Plague.

The Republica complains that the Boletin Oficial, which ought to be the first to publish all Government documents intended for publicity, is generally 'Paddy last' in the race, the other papers securing priority of publication in some unaccountable manner. The dreary columns of the Boletin certainly supply more cold hash than novelty to the public, who are not, however, like unfortunate newspaper editors, condemned to wade through them 'nolens volens.'

The Flores Tramway Company will, it is stated, run special cars to Caballito to-morrow, for the convenience of those attending the great land auction to be held there on that day by Messrs. Rodriguez and Larrazabal. One of the great attractions of the day will be an original stump speech by Mr. Rodriguez, who has justly won the reputation of being the first Argentine orator of the day in that line. His effort on Sunday at the Temperley auction was splendid, and carried the bidders to the pinnacle of competitive enthusiasm. Some time ago a STANDARD subscriber wrote to us to look up a genuine stump orator who would talk the authorities into action in city reforms; we commend Mr. Rodriguez for the Herculean task.

The proprietor of a well-known hotel in this city, whose flight was lately announced, escaped the officers of the law in a curious manner. He was upstairs when the police entered; the head waiter, an Irishman, 'smelt a rat,' and politely asked the Commissary to take a seat in the 'sala' while he called his master. The Commissary and his men sat down, and admired the furniture, pictures, &c., while the proprietor, advised by the faithful waiter, jumped on a tramway car that was passing and got away. At the end of half an hour it dawned on the Commissary that he was 'sold,' and he departed for the Cabildo, admitting himself a somewhat wiser man, a confession that must be more mortifying for a policeman than ordinary mortals.

A curious accident happened at the Plaza Once on Thursday, with fatal results. A peon in charge of an enormous pile of sheepskins laid down to sleep beside it at night. The wind blew them over, and the unfortunate man was found under them next morning stark and stiff.

A stunning bargain in the land way will be going at Flores next Wednesday. The proprietor is so frightfully 'hard up' that he announces he is obliged to sell the land to pay his doctor's bill. This is really a harrowing case—quite an auction romance.

Lieutenant Rawson, R. N., of the British Hydrographic Department, is at present in Montevideo, arranging the results of the surveys of the main channel of the River Plate recently made by him with the assistance of H.M.S. Speedwell, Beacon, and Cracker, under the command of Captain Parry, R.N., senior officer in the River Plate. We are informed his investigations will cause very material alterations in the present Admiralty charts, and that he will probably return to England by R.M.S. Neva, to hasten the publication of new charts of the R Plate.

H. M. S. Speedwell sailed on the 26th ult., for England, leaving Com'r. Patrick Roche senior naval officer in the River Plate. We salute our distinguished fellow countryman on this important command, and feel quite sure that British maritime interests here will suffer in nothing by being in charge of an Irishman.

An extraordinary auction came off in the front patio of Standard Court yesterday. Gorgeous Turkey and Brussels carpets were laid down, the walls hung with red, white, and blue drapery, a 'toldo' drawn across—in fact, the yard was metamorphosed into a drawingroom. The articles on sale were of the most fanciful description. Pictures of the Siege of Paris, portraits of Bismarck, Moltke, &c.; gorgeous Louis XV. furniture, diamonds of the purest paste, and glass decanters of the first water; 'articles de Paris' innumerable, and a host of other things too numerous to be mentioned. The attendance was enormous: no refreshments.

While the land fever rages so fiercely in the suburbs, an exception to the rule is curious. We hear of a small piece of land near San Fernando which was purchased in the year 1805, yet the present owner cannot realize within 20 per cent. of what his ancestor paid for it; we believe the plot is situated in the exact centre of a 'bañado.'

We are very happy to hear that the Rev. J. B. Leahy is so far recovered that he has already resumed the discharge of his missionary duties, and will preach to-morrow at San Roque Church.

A gentleman fell dead on the mole at the Boca while taking a walk on Thursday. Aneurism of the heart was the cause.

Ten persons died of small pox in this city on Thursday.

There is a little 'breeze' among the senators on the subject of their pay. It will be remembered that most of these gentlemen took the utmost care not to make their appearance in town till the plague had completely disappeared. Owing to this over estimation of the value of their lives to the community, a good number of Honorable Senators were six weeks or two months late; yet they want to be paid in full on the plea that 'urgent private affairs' alone kept them from their public duties. 'No song no supper,' Honorable Senators!

Never was the superiority of Mr. Latham's system of breeding and rearing stock so well proved as at the sale in Mr. Nazar's yard last Thursday. The animals, which were all born and reared at Quilmes, might have compared favorably with those of the best cabañas of France and Germany. Many old sheepfarmers present said they had seldom or ever seen better rams. We congratulate our enterprising friend Mr. Latham, on this splendid success of his theory—and our lucky countryman, Mr. Michael Murray, on being amongst the purchasers.

The Cordoba Exhibition will positively be inaugurated on the 15th of next month, and the Observatory on the 17th. The unanimity amongst Government House people and Congressmen on the subject of attending the ceremony is truly touching. The President of the Republic, the whole Cabinet, and Congress "en masse" will be off for Cordoba early next month, and those generally well-informed believe they will remain there all the summer.

Perhaps one of the most useful and instructive documents published in the newspapers for some time is the critical and scientific report of Mr. Balbin, junr., on the Montevidean waterworks. We regret that owing to its great length we are unable to publish it, but we recommend it to the attention of all those of our readers who take an interest in such matters. Mr. Balbin is a young Argentine of great promise, and we augur for him the greatest success in his career as Engineer.

ON 'CHANGE.

September 1, 1871.

Ounces	400
Sovereigns	125
Patacons	25
National Bonds	71½

There was a slightly better feeling in the Bond market to-day. Prices opened at 71½ cash, and closed firm at that rate. 49,00 were sold cash; for Thursday 50 00 at 71¼; for September 30th 10,000 at 71½; and for September 9th 5000 at 71¾. The speculation is decidedly setting in for the end of the month, but prices rose for that date so suddenly that no large operation could be made at yesterday's rate, 71½. More Bonds were expected to-day on the market than have come, and one of the heaviest bears yesterday was a bull to day.

It was rumored among the exchange brokers that some Chilian bills were passed to-day at 49¾; as yet, however, nothing much in exchange has been done.

The heavy gale, which has lasted now for two days, interferes greatly with the shipping business. The Holley leaves to-morrow, weather permitting. The Alps arrived at Montevideo; she will load in this port for New York.

The Royal mail steamer Neva is expected here on Tuesday. There is much enquiry as to whether she will bring any gold or not, but in Government circles it is said she will.

The Colony of Sunchales is the name of a new joint-stock company started in this market. The board of directors is all that can be required—president, Don Manuel Quintana; vice-president, J. Granel; treasurer, George Nutall, directors, A. Benites, William Bertram, L. J Isaac, A. Maveroff, P. Nouguier; manager, Charles de Mot. The colony is situated in the Province of Santa Fé, and the concession to the company is of a very valuable character.

It was said on 'Change to-day that one well-known lot of new wool was offered this morning on contract at $100 per arr., deliverable in market before the middle of November. It is not probable that any large quantity of wool will arrive before that time. Last year the number of bales of new wool shipped in November amounted to eleven hundred. It appears from the figures of a well-known shipping broker that last year's clip—that is to say 1870-71—does not in quantity fall short of the previous year. The number of bales at present engaged and loading is 7,000o

Money rules as abundant as ever, and first class paper is easily discounted at from 7 to 8 per cent per annum. Money is very freely offered on Bonds at 8 per cent, but there are few borrowers.

Telegrams were received to-day from Mr. G. P. Craufurd, who has been on a mining tour through the Provinces, announcing his arrival in Cordoba. On Monday he is expected here.

The Wanklyn Bank reduced its interest rates to-day, charging on balances in acc. current 12 per cent.

The Municipality has sent a detailed statement of its financial condition to the Legislature. By this schedule we learn that the debt of the Corporation amounts to the trifle of 23 millions currency, and that the Municipality owes the Western Railway three millions currency, for service of trains to the Chacarita.

Respecting the sale of the Western Railway, a bill authorizing same has been introduced in the Legislature, and it is very generally thought that it will pass, as there is a majority in both houses in favour of the measure. It was said on 'Change that there are parties here in this market ready to buy up the concern for the price it cost, when the government thinks proper to sell it.

On Sunday the tramway to Caballito will commence running, for the purpose of conveying bidders to the great auction of lands on the Gauna Road. Property about Caballito is now in great demand, owing to its healthy situation and the convenience of the tramway. All the property on the macadamized road to Flores through which the tramway runs has been bought up, with the exception of one small piece facing the Postela quinta—69 v. front on the road by 77 in depth—which is in the hands of Messrs Bullrich & Co to sell, and which will be put up at auction in a few days if not privately sold.

The clearance of the port works, under charge of Captain Harrison, now proceed apace. The remains of the Pampero steamer are now being removed.

Several sales of wool of the new clip on contract are reported; the prices range from 60 to 75, but as a rule only small farmers are making contracts; the large estancieros prefer waiting until the season regularly opens, and taking their chance of the market. The prospects of wool are certainly good, and every way sufficient to inspire the fullest confidence in the market.

As yet no detailed list of the Oldendorff auction has reached town; buyers who have just returned report the Negretti sheep sold at very low prices, and in cases under their cost in Europe.

As an instance of the great rise in property in the Lomas de Zamora we may state that seven thousand patacons have been offered to the Popular Argentina for three squares of land which that company holds there: as yet the property has not been sold. Messrs. Linares Hermanos of Salta have been named agents of the Popular Argentina in that Province.

There were no mails from Montevideo to-day, and notwithstanding the order which still exists at the Port Captain's against the steamers all sailing the same night for the same port, scarcely a week passes that we have not two or three steamers arriving the same morning from Montevideo. If properly regulated, with the number of river steamers at present running, we might have a steamer here every morning, but as the time-bills of the steamers at present run, some days we have no less than six steamers in from Montevideo and the next day none at all.

The British gunboat Cracker, Captain Dennistoun, has just been engaged in a very laborious survey of the mouth of the River Plate for the British Admiralty. The Cracker is now in port, and on Monday will leave for the Uruguay. Whilst on the coast the officers of the vessel engaged in the survey received every demonstration of kindness from Messrs. Casares, who sent orders to their estancia to supply the vessel with everything they required gratis, for which the officers although unable to avail themselves of, feel most grateful.

The works of the Eastern Railway were inaugurated on the 29th ult. in Entre Rios. There appears to have been nothing very official in the ceremony—so best. Railways in the interior are no longer problematical, the Government guarantee and the value to be attached to it can now be properly measured by the vote in the Senate on Wednesday. Provincial railways as self paying are but a mere dream. The Central Argentine Railway, the great trunk line in this republic, is not self-paying—and what prospects are there for a side line like this Eastern Railway, which was hatched by Dr. Velez Sarsfield, as the splendid dinner service presented him by the concessionaire testifies? It is desirable that the English shareholders of the Eastern Argentine Railway should thoroughly understand the prospects of their company, both as regards the possible trade on the line and the real extent of the Government guarantee before any further money is spent on this railway, which happens to run through the only Argentine province that at present boasts of a done up railway concern—we refer to the Port Ruiz and Gualeguay Railway.

The Argentine Senate has passed by a large majority the bill suspending the Government guarantee of 7 p.%. to the C. Argentine Railway. It is to be hoped that the Deputies will throw it out, or at least that President Sarmiento will veto it. General Mitre, we are happy to say, opposed the measure in the Senate, as also Mr. Oroño. The bill if passed into law would do incalculable injury to the credit of the nation, and possibly lead to difficulties which our enlightened legislators never dreamt of. It is not generally known, but it is desirable now that Argentine legislators should be acquainted with the fact that when the Province of Buenos Ayres last year entered the London money market to negotiate the loan known as the Dominguez loan, not one penny could be obtained, notwithstanding all that is said of the high credit of Buenos Ayres, until first the Government paid up in full the arrears of guarantee due to the shareholders of the Northern Railway, and this in face of Governor Alsina's decree some years previously cancelling the guarantee. Congressmen with all their talent "have counted without their host" in this matter, and the conduct of the Prime Minister in these proceedings, to use a very mild term, is regarded as highly discreditable.

On next Friday Messrs. Bullrich will sell 50 choice lots at Green Park, Lomas de Zamora. The property is some of the most charming to be found in Buenos Ayrean suburbs.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND Co.
101--Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current we now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maná & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes alerady mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

¡C¡ON DITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. p. ∃) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds Twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishe can open an account current, according to the rules estabished by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

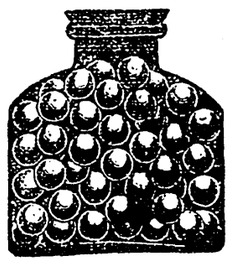
HEALTH AND HAPPINESS
BY THE USE OF
BRISTOL'S SUGAR COATED VEGETABLE PILLS.

These Pills have justly acquired a widely extended reputation for their wonderful cures of severe cases of sickness—cases in which all other Medicines had failed, and which had been given up by Physicians as beyond help—such as confirmed and long-standing Liver Complaints, obstinate cases of Piles, Dropsy, &c. But while admitting their wonderful curative powers in difficult cases, we wish to call attention to their great value in the every-day diseases of life, such as Costiveness, for which they are a perfect specific; Headache relieved and cured by one dose; Indigestion always removed by them, and the stomach so toned and strengthened as to prevent a return. Bad Breath cannot exist when the stomach is cleansed by

BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS.



Purely Vegtable.

For Loss of Appetite they are the only sure remedy, as they never fail in carrying off the depraved bilious secretions that float in the stomach and destroy the healthy, natural craving for food. Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Flatulency, and all Derangements of the Digestive and excretory Organs, are promptly relieved and cured by them. The public should always bear in mind that Bristol's are the only Pills made of

Podophyllin and Leptandrin,

The only vegetable substances yet discovered that are really

Antibilions,

To the presence of which invaluable resinolds the extraordinary success of Bristol's Pills may in a great measure be ascribed. It is necessary, however, that the sick should always remember that in all diseases that have their origin in the blood.

BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA,

That best of blood purifiers, should be used with the Pills, the two Medicines being prepared expressly to act in harmony together. When this is done faithfully, we have no hesitation in saying that great relief, and, in most cases, a cure, can be guaranteed when the patient is not already beyond human help.

For general directions and table of doses, see the wrapper around each phial of Pills; but as different constitutions require different doses to produce the same effect, it is better that each person ascertain, by trial, the dose that suits their system, and take that dose, instead of following any general rule.
